NOTE—If an officer immediately before his retirement or death, has been absent from duty on leave with allowances, his emoluments for the purpose of calculating service gratuity and or death-cum-retirement gratuity should be taken at what they would have been had he not been absent from duty :

Provided that the amount of gratuity is not increased on account of increase in pay not actually drawn and that benefit of higher officiating or temporary pay is given only if it is certified that he would have continued to hold the higher officiating or temporary appointment but for his proceeding on leave.

NOTE—If an officer immediately before his retirement or death, has been absent from duty on leave with allowances, his emoluments for the purpose of calculating service gratuity and or death-cum-retirement gratuity should be taken at what they would have been had he not been absent from duty :

Provided that the amount of gratuity is not increased on account of increase in pay not actually drawn and that benefit of higher officiating or temporary pay is given only if it is certified that he would have continued to hold the higher officiating or temporary appointment but for his proceeding on leave.

Provided further that if a retired officer is subsequently granted notional promotion from a date falling earlier to his date of retirement, he shall be entitled to revised pension with effect from the date on which the order of notional promotion was issued, on the basis of the pay notionally arrived at immediately before his retirement by granting admissible increments notionally after fixing his pay on the date of notional promotion. However, no arrear of pay shall be admissible on account of pay fixation on notional promotion, and, similarly, no arrear of pension on account of grant of pension under this proviso shall be admissible for the period falling prior to the date of issue of order of notional promotion.

By order,
Rahul Bhatnagar
Principal Secretary.
